

With All Good Wishes for Christmas and the New Year

ReConnect makes a huge difference to people's lives. It enables refugees with often unrecognised talent and competence to find a way forward in higher education and teaching. Everyone benefits: the individuals, society, and the education system itself." Professor Tom Schuller, former Dean, Birkbeck, University of London"

UPDATE

ReConnect Preparation for Higher Education Programme at UCL

Our partner University College London (UCL) Institute of Education has continued to deliver ReConnect's Preparation for Higher Education programme since 2018. To date a total of 390 refugees and asylum seekers, 211 females and 179 males, from 39 countries, have been supported on the programme.

Educational Counselling & Credit Transfer Information Services (ECCTIS) / UK ENIC

Since the initiative started, in June 2021, we have supported 316 (143 females and 173 males) refugees and asylum seekers from 28 countries to secure authoritative Statements of Comparability of their overseas qualifications from UK ENIC/ ECCTIS (formerly NARIC), working under the Department of Education. The statement gives refugees and asylum seekers guidance about how their prior learning fits in the UK, enabling them to make an informed decision on their preferred options in higher education.

Pathways into Teaching for Refugees Programme at IOE

Since 2005, In partnership with Birkbeck and UCL the Institute of Education, ReConnect has enabled 59 (33 males, 26 females) unemployed and underemployed refugees, from 20 countries to gain teaching qualifications. We are currently actively seeking to raise the required funds to restore the programme.

Our thanks and appreciation to UCL Institute of Education, for providing four fully funded awards (fees only) Part-time PGCE programme places for those who completed the UCL IOE ReConnect - Preparation for Higher Education Programme for refugees.

SUPPORTING REFUGEES INTO HIGHER EDUCATION

APPEAL for Support by Sarah Buxton Chair of Trustees of ReConnect

2025 has been a year in which the social and political climate has caused anxiety and fear for those seeking safety in our country. ReConnect ends the year with the satisfaction of providing programmes which give new opportunities to people who are reorienting themselves to contribute to a new country. During 2025, ReConnect has enabled 64 refugees and asylum seekers to participate in our 10-week /30-hour Preparation for Higher Education course, developed in 2018 by our partners at UCL Institute of Education. See the comments from two participants and other newsletters on the website.

To continue and hopefully expand what we offer, ReConnect needs the support of both individuals and organisations, in monetary and other ways. We want to extend the educational and employment casework for completers of PHE. (See Newsletter 12). We need funds to continue to provide the service enabling any refugee in the UK to have a Statement of Comparability of their educational documents. We have helped 316 people so far. Overleaf you will find details of how you can contribute as an individual. We are also seeking new Trustees and Volunteers. Do contact me if you have ideas to contribute to strengthening ReConnect. sarahbuxton@reconnectonline.org.uk

A SUCCESS STORY

ReConnect creates opportunities for refugees to realise their potential

Reflection by students who completed the UCL IOE ReConnect - Preparation for Higher Education Programme for refugees:

"I am writing to express my deepest gratitude for all the support, encouragement, and guidance you have given me during the ReConnect Preparation for Higher Education Programme. Your invaluable advice, care, and recommendation letters have made an incredible difference in my academic journey.

I am delighted to share with you some wonderful news: I was awarded three Sanctuary Scholarships - at Chester University (MSc in FinTech Technology and Business Analytics), Birmingham University (MSc in Business Analytics), and St Andrews University (MSc in Banking and Finance). After careful consideration, I have chosen to pursue my studies at the University of Birmingham, where I will begin my MSc in Business Analytics in September.

This achievement would not have been possible without your dedicated support and belief in my potential. I feel very fortunate to have been part of the ReConnect programme, and I will always carry with me the lessons and encouragement you provided."

A SUCCESS STORY

"Since completing the PHEP course, I've made great progress in my educational journey. With your support, I was able to understand the UK education system more clearly, and I learned about the university options available to me. The programme gave me the confidence to apply for GCSE courses, and I have now successfully progressed to an Access to Higher Education Diploma in Law, which I'll be starting very soon.

Regarding the challenges I've faced, being an asylum seeker in the UK was initially very isolating and overwhelming. I felt lost and alone. However, the PHEP programme was a turning point for me. It not only supported my travel expenses so I could attend the course, but it also gave me the chance to walk around the UCL campus, which opened my eyes to the academic and social life here in the UK. You also helped me get my educational documents translated for free, which was a massive step in allowing me to move forward with my goals.

Thanks to your support, I was able to identify my level of study, build my confidence, and take practical steps toward university. This programme has truly been a foundational part of my journey, and I'm deeply grateful for everything ReConnect has done for me."
